

In Miss The Girl

Words & Music
By

JOHN E. HARTE

Arranged by

CHARLES E. MILLNER, E.R.C.O.

PRINTED FOR THE COMPOSER BY WHALEY, ROYCE & CO.
WINNIPEG LIMITED TORONTO

"AUDAX IN ARDUIS"

THE REGIMENTAL MARCH SONG OF THE

146TH

OVERSEAS BATTALION

KINGSTON, ONT.

Esther Price Watts
Feb. 26/16

Compliments of Mrs. A. How

I'll Miss The Girl

3

Words and Music by John E. Harte

Arranged by Charles E. Millner, F. R. C. O.

Marziale

PIANO mf

1. I'm go-ing to fight for my coun-try dear, And I know one heart will
 2. I'll miss_ that girl, but you may de - pend, It will all the bright - er glow; _____ She said, last night—"aren't you go-ing to fight? Lad, I be, _____ When I come back at the great war's end, And I think now you ought to go? _____ So here I am, and I know she's find her a - wait-ing me. _____ And she shall share all the glo - ry cresc.

glad, For she thinks the world of me, And I'm just as then, For she shares my tri - als now, And that's why I'm cresc.

glad, I'm her sol - dier lad, As a sol - dier lad could be.
glad, I'm her sol - dier lad, As I march to keep my vow.

CHORUS

I'll miss the girl that's wait-ing for me here un-til I come back home. And she'll miss me, that fills me full of cheer, No mat - ter where I roam. But I'll go and shew her that I'm worth her pride,— And fight for her hon-our what-e'er else be - tide, And she'll be proud and lin - ger by my side, and cheer, When I come home.

5

